PROJECTS

WEATHER APP | HTML,CSS,JavaScript,Weather API

A sleek and user-friendly web application designed to provide real-time weather data for any city worldwide. Users can search by city name and instantly retrieve temperature, humidity, wind speed, and general weather conditions. Built using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript to ensure a clean and responsive design. Integrated with a reliable weather API to fetch live data dynamically. The interface is fully responsive across devices, and the JavaScript logic efficiently handles form input, API requests, and error management for a smooth user experience.

AI-Powered Study Planner | HTML,CSS,JavaScript

Designed and developed a responsive web application that helps students plan their study schedules by inputting subjects, deadlines, and available daily hours. It intelligently distributes study time across days using custom logic, stores user data locally, and provides a clean, user-friendly interface.
